

Acme Events India wins “Best Corporate Event Management Company”

Bangalore, July 2012: Bangalore based event management company, Acme Events India has won the award for “Best Corporate Event Management Company” at the Event Industry Awards by CMO Asia that was held in Singapore recently.

“We are elated to be named the Best Corporate Event Management Company in South East Asia”, said Geo Thomas, Founder and CEO, Acme Events India. “We are extremely grateful to our clients who are more than 200 of the most recognised names in the corporate space and have made this award possible for us. We also thank our partners in the industry. We pledge to continue giving our clients the most professional and process driven service, as we go forward with this new feather in our cap.”

CMO Asia’s Event Industry Awards honour the best services in the event management space every year. This year, there were over 65 countries from across the globe taking part in the awards. Other awardees included Volkswagen, IBM, Pizza Hut, Walt Disney, BMW, Google and the like.

Acme Events India has also been nominated at this year’s World Travel Awards for the “India’s Leading Destination Management Company.” This is Acme Events’ third consecutive nomination in this category.

About Acme Events India:

Acme Events India is a premier integrated experiential marketing company based out of Bangalore. Established in 2007 by SAP consultant turned entrepreneur Geo Thomas, Acme Events now has the reputation of being one of the most professional event management companies in the country. Having worked with top names like Bosch, Capgemini, EMC, Ernst&Young, IBM, ICICI, Kingfisher, pwc, SAP to name a few of the 200 plus clients. Acme Events India specializes in product launches, annual days, MICE events, international offsites and other corporate event requirements.

For more information, please contact:

Divya Susan Varkey

Communications Head

Mobile: +91 9741 756500

Email: divya.s@acmeeventsindia.com